Busqueda de vocabulario

- On your sheet, you have a list of school vocabulary in Spanish
- I have posted all of the English definitions around the room. Most of the words are cognates
- You are going to complete a scavenger hunt to fill in the English definition for the Spanish word on your paper.
- You are ALSO decoding a secret message! When you match the English word to the Spanish word, write the letter that is beside the word on the wall in the given column on your notes.
- Let's do an example together!

Schools in Spain (España)

VS.

schools in the US (Estados Unidos)

High schools in Spain...

- Students don't move from class to class- teachers do!
- They do not eat lunch at school - they normally have 2 hours to go home for lunch!
- They take religion classes
- Teachers dress more casually
- Not much school spirit and school sports are not as important like in the US
- Sometimes they even call their teachers by their first names!

So, knowing those differences,
would you rather go to high school in the US or Spain?
